

Looking Differently at our Problems

The way we talk about a problem or situation is part of the problem. Part of the solution is to talk about it differently. Name two or three of the most frequently talked about problems in relation to [area] in the churches you serve:

- What assumptions are present in the way the problems are discussed?
- How might you help them talk about these problems differently?
- Name 1-3 ideas that you could discuss in a leadership team related to these problems or issues.
