

Sharing Questions

Use one or more of the following to stimulate personal reflection on experience with the particular track theme:

- Tell at least one story from your ministry that illustrates questions or doubts or particular feelings about this theme.
- Describe an event or realization related to this theme that caused your desire to pass on something of worth to others in your context.
- Imagine that it is 2 years from now. You remember this experience. Describe what you learned and experienced that shaped your thought and action over the past two years.
- Who would be the best person in your life to serve as a mirror to you concerning your particular “growth edges.” What might this person say to you?
- Tell us of a time when you were conscious of being significantly influenced by someone else in relation to this theme?
- As you have listened to the stories at this event what patterns can you identify? What do the patterns suggest to you about how Asian and Latino/a leaders are influenced in their own leadership and ministry development? In what ways would you extend these patterns to other ethnic groups?
- Reflect on the stories of influence that you have heard at this event. What do they suggest about structures or processes that might be of help—or that need to change?
- What kind of support, training, or coaching in relation to this theme do you wish you had in the early years of your ministry?
- How do you see yourself as an influencer? What wisdom would you want to pass on to the next generation of Latino/a and Asian and other ethnic leaders?
